Diabetes Support Group to Discuss Staying Healthy During Flu Season

The Diabetes Support Group will host Dick Roemer, a pharmacist from Kurt's Pharmacy, leading a discussion titled "You, the Flu, and What You Can Do About It." Mr. Roemer will be discussing how the flu can affect a person with diabetes and how you can stay healthy during the flu season this year.

This meeting will take place on Tuesday, November 18, at 7 p.m.

The meeting will be held at South Central Public Health located on the College of Southern Idaho campus. People attending the meeting should use the north entrance of the building.

The Diabetes Support Group meeting is open to the public, and there is no charge to attend. The group meets regularly at 7 p.m. on the third Tuesday in January, February, March, April, May, September, October, and November at South Central Public Health.

Contact Susie Beem at 737-5946 for more information.
